PROFILE ID TITLE: W-2 OTHER ASSISTANCE PMTFULL TITLE: Wisconsin Works (W-2) Other Assistance PaymentREPORTING INSTRUCTIONS:

Report all cost related to payments of other supportive services that meet the definition of assistance to W-2 participants. W-2 supportive services that meet the definition of assistance are defined as a benefits that meets a family's ongoing basic needs that exceeds 4 consecutive months of payments, such as to cause a participants assistance time clock to "tick". These include food, clothing, shelter, utilities, household goods, personal care items & general incidental expenses, it also includes transportation costs to unemployed W-2 participants receiving case management services which would not otherwise cause their time clock to "tick". If the unemployed W-2 participant is receiving cash benefit payments then their transportation related expenses should be charged to profile 2015.

Do not record any cash benefit payments on this profile. Cash benefit payments will still be charged to the relevant W-2 contract profiles as indicated by the monthly CARES system extract.
